CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE

1. All animals must be fully vaccinated and the current veterinary certificate must be produced at time of boarding and will be retained during the boarding period.

2. A veterinary surgeon shall be called if deemed necessary and the owners will be responsible for the costs arising. Our insurance will cover the costs of any new condition arising during the stay limited to £500-00 but any costs related to a known condition will NOT be covered and the owners will be expected to settle their own account in full.
Any animal found to have worms or fleas will be given effective treatment and the owners will bear the cost.

3. Whilst all reasonable care and attention is given to every animal boarded, the kennel and/ or its staff cannot be held responsible for loss or damage arising through illness or any other cause and the animal is boarded entirely at the owner's risk.

4. Boarding fees are payable at termination of agreed boarding period and the kennels shall have a general lien on any boarders in respect of unpaid bills.

5. In the event of failure to collect boarder and pay boarding fees within 30 days termination of boarding period the animals shall become the property of the kennels who shall be free to dispose of such animal in whatsoever manner it shall choose. Nothing herein shall prevent the kennels from recovering from the owner's unpaid boarding fees to termination of boarding period plus any extension thereof.

6. By signing this contract and leaving the animal with this kennel, the owner certifies to the accuracy of all information given about said animal on this contract and consents to the conditions set out.

7. Cancellation Fees will be at the proprietor's discretion. If less than two weeks notice is not received in writing and verbally agreed you may be responsible for part or the full amount.
